Where else should your first stop be than the shopping destination owned by HGTV's famous home-renovating couple? Then bask in the sunshine on the lawn and check out the garden goodies at Magnolia Seed and Supply.

Get Inspired at The Findery

Love that distinct farmhouse style commonly featured on Fixer Upper? Get yourself over to The Findery, which is only a couple of blocks away from Magnolia Market. Walking there is the best bet.

Shop Spice Village

Now get into your car and drive over to Spice Village. You passed it on the trolley. If parking is tight in front, park in the big free lots across Franklin Avenue instead. Spice Village is located on the second floor of a big restored warehouse.

Take a Selfie with Chip and Jo

Stop By The Little Shop on Bosque

3:30 PM – 4:15 PM

The original home of the Magnolia Market, this site is an adorable house made into a shop. Although it's no longer open for business, you can still stop by to snap a photo in front of the little shop.

Order a Gut Pak at Vitek's BBQ

Chip and Jo are Baylor Bears, so it's no surprise one of the restaurants featured on their show would be the home of the famous Gut Pak. The Gut Pak is a mouthwatering pile of cheese, chopped beef, beans, sausage, onions, pickles, and more on a bed of Fritos corn chips. Hearty and satisfying, the Gut Pak is a culinary tradition here in Waco. No wonder it was voted first place in The Cooking Channel's 2013 Best College Eats by viewers.

JDH Iron Designs
